

Prof. Dr. Nicole Naeve-Stoß

Contact Institute for Vocational, Economics and Business Education of the University of Cologne
Herbert-Lewin-Str. 2, 50931 Cologne
phone: 49-221-470 2583
nicole.naeve-stoss@uni-koeln.de

Personal Data born 1976 in Itzehoe (Germany)

SCIENTIFIC CAREER

Professional activities

Since 2017	University professorship for business education at the Institute for Vocational, Economics and Business Education of the University of Cologne
2016 – 2017	University professorship for educational science with the focus on "School and teaching development at vocational colleges" at the University of Siegen
2015 – 2016	Temporary Academic Counsellor at the Chair of Business Education and Human Resources Development at the Georg-August-University of Göttingen
2006 – 2015	Research assistant at the Institute for Vocational and Business Education at the University of Hamburg
2005 - 2006	Work as a student research assistant at the Institute for Vocational and Business Education at the University of Hamburg
2004 – 2005	Work as a student assistant at the Institute for Vocational and Business Education at the University of Hamburg

Academic Degrees

01/2013	Completion of doctorate degree at the University of Hamburg (Prof. Dr. Tade Tramm) Topic: Study reform from a student perspective - individual case studies to reconstruct student perceptions, assessments and study strategies in the context of teacher training for vocational schools
06/2006	1st state examination in teaching profession for vocational schools, Diplom-Handelslehrerin (graduate business teacher) at the University of Hamburg

Education

2001 – 2006	Studies at the University of Hamburg Studium in the field of teacher training for secondary schools – vocational schools, vocational specialisation in economics, teaching subject German 06/2006: Attainment of the Degree Diplom-Handelslehrerin (graduate business teacher)
1998 – 2000	Apprenticeship as a bank clerk at Deutsche Bank Bremen